CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER TO RUN NEW YORK CITY MARATHON IN SUPPORT OF PAT TILLMAN FOUNDATION

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., November 3, 2017 – Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS) is proud to support Chief Compliance Officer Merlin Elsner as he runs the 2017 New York City Marathon to raise funds and awareness for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which invests in military veterans and their spouses through academic scholarships.

A donation from MBS and contributions from individual MBS employees helped Elsner, an avid marathon runner, exceed his fundraising goal for Team Tillman.

MBS, a veteran-owned business, actively looks to support military-focused charities. The Firm supports Operation Homefront's Back-to-School Brigade® each year, and has sponsored the CMG Foundation's Annual Wine Tasting and Charity Auction since 2013.

"I encourage our staff to find ways to give back and support our troops, and am very pleased to see how much support Elsner has received," said CEO and founder David T. Maccagnone, a Vietnam veteran who was awarded the Purple Heart for his service.

The Pat Tillman Foundation was founded in 2004 in memory of the Arizona Cardinals safety who left his NFL career to enlist in the U.S. Army after the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Team Tillman athletes around the country have raised nearly $1.2 million to fund scholarships for Tillman Scholars.

"Not only am I running this coming Sunday for those who have served our country with honor and distinction, but I will also have on my mind those who served but never came home," Elsner said.
