

MULTI-BANK SECURITIES, INC. VOLUNTEERS DISTRIBUTE SCHOOL SUPPLIES TO MILITARY CHILDREN

MIAMI, Aug. 9, 2018 – Employees from Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS), a Veteran-Owned Business Enterprise (VBE), volunteered with Operation Homefront this weekend to support its annual Back-to-School Brigade® for the fourth consecutive year.

MBS is a proud sponsor of Operation Homefront's Back-to-School Brigade®, a nationwide school supply collection campaign that puts donated school supplies directly into the hands of military families in need. The program has delivered more than 300,000 backpacks since 2008.

Volunteers handed out more than 200 backpacks and necessary school supplies to military children during an Aug. 5 distribution event at the Florida National Guard Robert A. Ballard Armory in Miami. The Firm also held a school supply drive to collect donations from employees and clients.

"As a veteran-owned firm, we are honored to lend our support and give back to service members and their loved ones," said Jim Powell, senior vice president, who volunteered at the event. "We appreciate everything that the Back-to-School Brigade® has done for military families in need and we are proud to be a part of the program year after year."

MBS actively looks to support military-focused charities. The Firm is proud to count numerous former service members among its ranks, including CEO and founder David T. Maccagnone, a Vietnam veteran and Purple Heart recipient.

"We were thrilled to have Multi-Bank Securities return as a sponsor for the 2018 Back-to-School Brigade® season," said Operation Homefront Program Coordinator Beth McGregor. "Not only did MBS provide monetary support for the events, employees and family members from the South Florida office joined the Miami event to volunteer. Miami's Back-to-School Brigade® provided backpacks and school supplies for 200 military children and 1,100 military children were served statewide. Special thanks to MBS for helping military kids kick off a successful school year!"
