MBS EMPLOYEES GIVE BACK, HELP DISTRIBUTE SCHOOL SUPPLIES TO LOCAL MILITARY FAMILIES IN WEST PALM BEACH

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Aug. 10, 2026 – Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS) helped local military families prepare for the school year on Saturday by volunteering with Operation Homefront's Back-to-School Brigade® at the Florida National Guard Armory.

The annual distribution event connected military children with backpacks, lunch totes, classroom materials and age-appropriate school supplies. Families also enjoyed games and crafts, creating a welcoming environment focused on easing the transition into a new academic year.

For MBS, a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Business (SDVOB), this event reflects the Firm's commitment to showing up for the military community in practical, meaningful ways.

"The Back-to-School Brigade does more than provide school supplies, it also helps ensure military families feel supported by the communities around them," said Jim Powell, a senior vice president of MBS who coordinates the Firm's support of the Back-to-School Brigade each year. "Operation Homefront creates a meaningful connection between those who want to help and the families who benefit from that support, and MBS is proud of our long-standing partnership."

This year's support included a $5,000 Community Partner contribution and a school supply drive that generated more than $5,000 in donated items from MBS employees and clients, helping extend the reach of Operation Homefront's work in the community.

The Firm's support for the Back-to-School Brigade is part of MBS's broader philanthropic focus on programs that support active-duty service members, veterans, special operations forces (SOF) and their families. In addition to our work with Operation Homefront, MBS also supports with Operation Healing Forces, Next4Vets and other charitable organizations, and provides professional development opportunities for veterans.
