MULTI-BANK SECURITIES, INC., OPERATION HEALING FORCES RAISE MORE THAN $52,000 FOR SPECIAL OPERATIONS FORCES

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., April 17, 2026 – Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS) was proud to support Operation Healing Forces (OHF)'s fundraising efforts by raising more than $52,000 in unique and matching donations to strengthen Special Operations Forces families. MBS matched donations dollar-for-dollar, up to $25,000, during the April campaign, doubling the impact of each individual donation to reach further and faster during a time of heightened operational demand.

The funds will help support OHF's life-enhancing programs for Special Operations Forces service members, veterans, their families, caregivers and survivors, including therapeutic retreats, immediate needs assistance, wellness programming, transition support and more.

"We are proud to partner with Operation Healing Forces again and grateful to everyone who helped make this fundraising campaign a success," said David T. Maccagnone, CEO and chairman of MBS. Maccagnone is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran who fought in the Battle of Khe Sanh during the Vietnam War. He was awarded a Purple Heart for his service. "They provide critical resources and programs for Special Operations Forces and their families, who often face tremendous uncertainty during missions and at home. It is an honor for MBS to support America's Tip of the Spear and help amplify the impact of OHF's fundraising efforts."

MBS is proud to be certified as a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Business (SDVOB). The Firm partners with multiple veteran-focused charities and has been a proud supporter of Operation Healing Forces since 2019.

"We are deeply grateful to Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. for their steadfast and patriotic commitment to our nation's Special Operations Forces community," said Kerry Irvin, CEO of OHF. "Their generosity not only helped us surpass a significant goal, but more importantly, it delivers tangible hope and healing to a community that has borne an extraordinary share of sacrifice in service to our nation. Our team is proud to stand alongside partners like MBS whose commitment reflects both purpose and action in making a lasting difference."
