MBS ANNOUNCES RICHARD JONES AS DIRECTOR OF VETERAN BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AND WORKFORCE INITIATIVES

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., August 3, 2026 — Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS), a certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Business, today announced the hiring of Richard "Rich" Jones as Director of Veteran Business Development and Workforce Initiatives, a newly created role designed to strengthen the Firm's veteran-focused partnerships, business development efforts and career pathways for former service members.

In this role, Jones will focus on expanding business opportunities, building and deepening relationships with veteran-focused organizations and developing workforce initiatives that help veterans successfully transition into meaningful civilian careers. The creation of this position reflects MBS's continued commitment to developing and strengthening practical, long-term career development opportunities for veterans.

"MBS has always recognized the leadership, discipline and mission-focused mindset that veterans bring to the workplace," said David T. Maccagnone, the Firm's CEO. "By creating this new role and welcoming Rich to lead these efforts, we are strengthening our commitment to helping veterans identify, pursue and build rewarding careers beyond their military service."

Jones brings 27 years of service in the United States Air Force, where he served as a Sensor Operator on the RQ-1, MQ-1 and MQ-9 remotely piloted aircraft platforms. In that capacity, he supported critical intelligence, surveillance, reconnaissance and operational missions, gaining experience in high-stakes decision-making, operational coordination and mission execution.

David T. Maccagnone, the founder, CEO and chairman of MBS, is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran and Purple Heart recipient. The Firm has been recognized for its veteran-owned status by the National Veteran Business Development Council, the National Veteran-Owned Business Association and the State of New York. In addition to creating career and mentorship opportunities for veterans in the securities industry, MBS is proud to support several veteran-focused charities, including Operation Healing Forces, Operation Homefront, Next4Vets, Heroes on the Hudson, the Pat Tillman Foundation and the CMG Foundation.
